DEDICATION

To the community that makes our school possible we dedicate this our first annual:

To the builders of our school;
To all who give us financial support;
To those who set our educational policies;
To those who send us their sons and daughters;
And to all who guide and lead us.

These are our friends and for their support and interest we are truly grateful. May we always merit their approval and loyalty.

FOREWORD

This is the first edition of the "Shamrock" to be published.

The demand for this annual arose from the longing for a fitting memory of high school days. May this record serve all who have participated in the opportunities offered in our school under the "Extra-Curricular" as well as the curricular program. May it show those about to join us what is in store for them.

As you page through its contents may the memories of your high school experiences make you feel proud of the past and hopeful of the future.

We trust that this book will meet a felt need among all interested in the best for this community.

Respectfully,
H.E. Fried
Superintendent

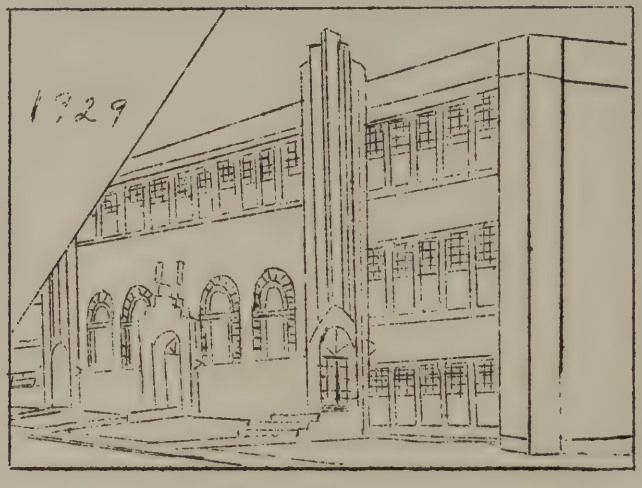
HISTORY

"Those who built our school of old
Left for us a wealth untold.
Here within your walls sublime
Built true greatness through all time.
Constantly thy gifts unfold
To thy sons and daughters bold,
And for those who tread thy halls
They have built enduring walls."

SCHOOL HISTORY



The first public school was erected in Graceville in 1879. This was a small two room frame school house which was located at the same place where our school now stands. Enrollment was small and no high school work was provided at first. The first teacher of this school was Miss. Ella Costello who is perhaps remembered by some members of the Community today.

The school continued to grow as the community grew and in 1898 a High School which was accredited by the State of Minnesota was established. The subjects offered by the High School at that time differed from the subjects offered by our High School today. English and History of course were taught even then, but the students also were required to complete a four year study of Latin. Mathematics and Solid Geometry were also required subjects.

The first graduates of the High School were Dr. O'Niel and Dr. Costello. These men graduated in 1898. Since then 437 students have graduated from our school. The largest class was the class of 1940 which had forty graduates.

Some of the early superintendents of the School were Messers. Hughes, McNally, and Isaacs, and these men, as well as the later superintendents, helped to advance the school by building up both the curriculum and organizing extra-curricular activities. The interest shown by the various superintendents has helped to make Graceville Public School a school to be proud of.

Following is a list of Superintendents since 1895:

1895 - 1896 - P. T. McNally
1896 - 1899 - L. N. Isaacs
1899 - 1901 - E. Tucky
1901 - 1902 - Henry Stahl
1902 - 1905 - McNevin
1905 - 1906 - G. E. Butler
1906 - 1908 - C. D. Coke
1908 - 1909 - M. A. Palson
1909 - 1910 - G. H. Neson
1910 - 1913 - J. H. Sherlock
1913 - 1914 - A. G. Klatt
1914 - 1916 - Miss C. Casey
1916 - 1918 - L. N. Isaacs.
1918 - 1920 - J. M. Domoney
1920 - 1921 - R. H. Joseph
1921 - 1924 - G. Mayer-Oakes
1924 - 1927 - J. A. Chrystal
1927 - 1932 - Otto Zellner
1932 - 1935 - W. Cleasby
1935 - 1941 - H. E. Fried

The change from a Common to an Independent School District was effected in March 1893. Since that time we have operated as an Independent School District.

The enrollment of the school grew continuously and in 1895 it was necessary to add a fifth teacher and open a new school room. Since the school was not large enough the town council room was rented for use as a fifth classroom. At this time the matter of building a high school in addition to the existing building became imperative and a new addition was constructed in 1898. This building served until 1929 when the present excellent school was erected.

Another group of men who share laurels for the progress made by our school are the men who through the years have served as board members. Some of the early board members were: Messers. P.H. Hara, R. Dilsborrow, H.J. Donnell, Baldwin, W.F. O'Neill, C.D. Catlin, F.M. Bergen, and a score of others. Congratulations to all those men and women in our community who at some time or another have served on the school board.

The change from an eight year grade and four year high school plan to the six year grade and six year high school system was made in 1936. The purpose of this plan was to introduce the Junior High in order to bridge the gap between grades and high school. The Junior High includes grades seven, eight, and nine and is the stepping stone that helps and guides the pupil so that he is ready for high school work.

With the passing of time new subjects have been added to our curriculum. As early as 1913 Agriculture, Manual Training, and Home Economics became a regular part of the course of study and special teachers were added to the teaching staff. In 1915 a normal department was established temporarily. Since that time the Commercial Department also has been introduced.

Today the high school is offering a large number of subjects all of which are planned primarily to start the student in his training for his life work.

1934-1935	49	1938-1939	65

1936-1937	47	1940-1941	83

These pupils attend our high school while living in other districts. The State gives us tuition and supplemental aid for these students if they qualify by attending a certain number of days each year.

In the fall of 1936 the first school bus began to operate. The bus system has enabled the school to serve the people of the surrounding districts. High school pupils are transported to school from the towns of Johnson, Collis, Barry, and the farms throughout this region. Thus the advantages of high school are extended to our farm students and smaller communities. Today seven buses transport to the Public School and St. Mary's Academy.

The bus drivers serving our school today are:

Bus 1 A. M. Parker

Bus 11 J. Lucksinger

Bus 111 Leo Eisenmenger

Bus 1V Ray Warner

Bus V John Toner

Bus V1 Bernard Guenther

Bus V11 Tom Cauley

These men cover many miles of terriotory each day. One hundred and nine of our pupils ride to school by bus.

Each year of the past has given to our school inspiration for the present and future. All those who have served on the school boards, acted as faculty members, graduated from our student body, or in any way given of themselves have built our school as it exists today. The history sketched here is necessarily brief and tells only a part of the whole story. Although only a few of those to whom this school owes its existence are mentioned all are remembered in these pages and in the memories of many of those who read these pages.

Some of our students have won honors in intershhool activities, but even more of them have won their places in the history of their school by their devotion to hard work and to the ideals of their High School

"Faculty, we're thanking you,
For each days work you've helped us do.
You've steadied the rock for our success;
In every class you've done your best.
And we in turn are taught to be,
Tomorrow's fitted society.
The purpose is there regardless of name;
Building for character, not for fame."

DEPARTMENTS

The well balanced curriculum offers a variety of subjects to today's pupils. Many opportunities for training for the future is offered the pupils of Graceville High School by the following School Departments:

Social Studies	Home Economics
English	Manual Training
Library	Agriculture
Mathematics	Physical Education
Science	Music & Art

Commercial

We have attempted to present to you very briefly each of these departments in the following pages. The work of each department is under the supervision of the faculty members who are qualified to handle that work.

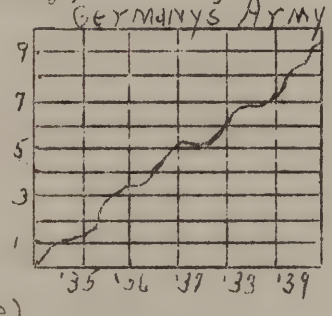
The work of all the departments is supervised and checked by our Superintendent, Mr. H. E. Fried.

HISTORY	CIVICS	FARMING	COOKING	CHEMISTRY	POETRY	BASEBALL	GEEGG	PHYSICS	GEOMETRY	SHOP

SOCIAL STUDIES

A full program of Social Studies is offered each year in the Junior and Senior High School. Every pupil in school is enrolled in at least one of the classes offered. The program this year was as follows;

Grade 7	Geography
	Social Studies(State and American History)
Grade 8	Social Studies (American History)
Grade 9	Citizenship and Occupations
Grade 10	World History (5400 B. C. to present)
Grade 11	American History
Grade 12	Senior Social Studies (Problems Course)



The purpose of the Social Studies is to give the pupils an understanding of man as a social being through a study of his background and problems. It is important to see the connections between past, present, and future as well as to develop a appreciation for the great institutions which we have built.

Besides the actual classroon work, the Social Studies classes this year took part in assembly programs and conducted Mock Political Conventions and an election.

The Senior Social Studies class also took a field trip to the Twin Cities.

Instructors in the Social Studies Department are Miss Quist and Mr. Louchs.

ENGLISH

The objective of teaching literature is twofold: first, to encourage a genuine love of reading on the part of the student; secondly, to broaden and enrich his life through the experiences and thoughts of literary characters.

The students in our school, from the ninth through the twelfth grades use texts called "Prose and Poetry". The books are divided into sections or types of literature. Some of the types are as follows: the short story, biography and autobiography, the essay, drama, the novel, and lyric and narrative poetry.

The texts for the ninth and tenth grades contain literature which deals with American and English types and authors. The texts in the upper two classes are further divided into time periods of American and English literature respectfully. In addition, they give emphasis to international and world literature.

Other phases of English are stressed in each class. The students are given opportunities to enlarge their vocabularies through the study of words and the various uses of the dictionary. They learn to pronounce and spell basic lists of words. They learn the art of public speaking through class discussion, oral reports, story-telling, and dramatization. Opportunities are given in written compositions also, in the art of letter writing, and in writing original short stories, summaries, reports, and character sketches.
Instructors: Miss Hoeppner and Mr. Loucks

LIBRARY

The school library is a service center,--an educational laboratory where students and teachers may work out their problems. It has books, it has a system of organization, it has a caretaker, but its success depends not upon what it has, but what it accomplishes with it.

The Graceville School Library has about 2100 volumes on its shelves, which include books used in each of the twelve grades. All the books are now classified and catalogued.

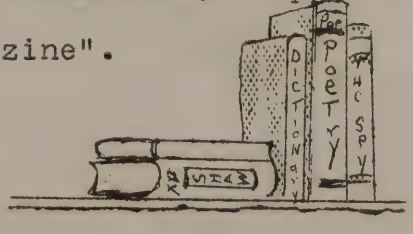
During this school year, the library has been enlargeed by approximately 100 new volumes. The greater number were purchases; others were added by gift. The appropriations in money reached about $70.00. Most of the additions were fiction and current books on biography and vocations.

A new and enjoyable feature of the library this year is a newspaper rack which contains the daily Minneapolis Morning Tribune.

Three new regulation-sized oak library tables have been exchanged for the old ones.

We have in the library a specially-made magazine rack which displays "Scholastic", "Open Road for Boys", "Child Life", "Better Homes and Gardens","Harpers", "The National Geographic", "Current History and Forum", "Business Week", "Newsweek", "United States News", "Reader's Digest", "Hygeia", "Popular Science", "Capper's Farmers", "The Farmer", and "Household Magazine".

The School Librarian is Miss Hoeppner.



MATHEMATICS

Instructor: Mr. Olszewski

Among the three R's which have always been an essential part of any school curriculum we find arithmetic, or as we now call it mathematics. The purpose of the mathematics course is to aid the student in his thinking processes as well as to enable him to solve some of the numerous problems of everyday life.

Mathematics is a required subject in the Junior High School. All three groups seventh, eighth, and ninth grades here receive the basic courses of mathematics. To Senior High School pupils are offered the elective course of Geometry. In our Geometry class this year are Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores. Geometry is one of the requirements for entrance to our State University as well as many other colleges. It is also a necessity for those students who wish to enter mechanical fields of industry.

Knowledge of the subject will enable the student to understand the exactness and force with which mathematics works and the parts which it plays in solving the problems of nature and which makes it possible for men to turn the elements of nature to his own use. It will enable him to find new and better ways of doing his work in future occupations, and to recognize a mathematical situation when he sees it.

SCIENCE

In the world of today science is playing an ever increasing part. Therefore it is essential that knowledge in the field of science should be given to the high school pupil.

This year's science curriculum is as follows:

Juniors and Seniors	Chemistry	Mr. Fried
Freshman	General Science	Miss Lampert
		Mr. Milinkovich
8th Grade	General Science	Mr. Olszewski
7th Grade	General Science	Mr. Olszewski

Chemistry and Physics are offered in alternate years and are open to juniors and seniors only.

Biology is also offered as an elective subject on the science curriculum.

Through their study of the various sciences the students gain an understanding of scientific phenomena. The ever changing methods in industrial and economical standards of living can be attributed to the progress of science. Inventions are dependent upon science and without it culture would have remained dormant for ever. Thus by the study of science our pupils prepare themselves for everyday living.

The Department of Home Economics is interested primarily in the theoretical knowledge and practical training relating to the economic, artistic, scientific, and social problems of the home. Its objectives are the development of ideals, personal traits, standards of achievement, and habits which will promote happy and effective living.

Home Economics is a subject taught in terms of realities of every day living. In our Department here in the school, home-making includes such phases as the following: Clothing Management; The Child and His Clothing; Clothing Construction; Preservation and Storage of Food; The Kitchen; Food Management; The Girl; Her Family and Her Friends; Personal Care; Health Care and Home Nursing; Furnishing and Care of the Home; Vocations Related to Home Economics; and Home Projects.

To our Department, under the direction of Miss Lampert, has been added new sewing equipment consisting of tables, machines, and pinking scissors; New Food equipment such as a dinning room table, linens, and several small cooking utensils.

To give the girls a chance to show some of the work accomplished in their class, a style show and tea was given to which their mothers and friends were invited. This year more than sixty garments were completed and shown in the style show. Kathryn Weesner and Melvina Murray gave the comments. Tea was served afterwards to mothers and friends by the Home Economic girls of the Junior and Senior classes.

Pearline Palmer, Yvonne Erickson, Lorna Jurgens and Ardys Rau

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

To know, to know how, and to be able to do--these are the three requirements of the Manual Training course offered to our seventh and eighth grade boys.

In this course the boys gain industrial knowledge, learn the use of tools, acquire manipulative skills, and put these skills to work in practical applications.

This year the boys in this class have made bookcases, corner shelves, breadboards, and many other practical objects. The type of articals made are those that can be used around any home.

One of the projects of the boys this year was a Christmas project. At that time old toys were collected. They were rebuilt, refinished and made ready for use for those who might otherwise have been without Christmas toys.

AGRICULTURE

We are living in a State that is dominently agricultural. Since this is true it is essential that public schools should not neglect agricultural education. It is very necessary that our pupils should obtain information and skills in the field of agriculture. Therefore, we offer courses in Agriculture to pupils in grades nine through twelve.

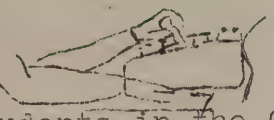
High school instruction in agriculture today is no experiment. Rather it is definitely planned to give accurate knowledge of facts that can help to solve agricultural problems.

The subjects studied by the boys in our school include livestock, dairying, grains, poultry, and horticulture. These subjects are dealt with each year. The agriculture course is so integrated that each year we go further and further into each of the problems of the course.

One of the most vital parts of our agriculture program is the F.F.A. This organization will be more fully explained under Activities.

Agriculture Instructor: Mr. Milinkovich

COMMERCIAL



The commercial department offers to the students in the Graceville High School the following business subjects: Typewriting, Bookkeeping, Stenography I and II.

There are two classes of typewriting, one section of nineteen students, and the other of twenty one. In this second section, eleven are students from St. Mary's Academy. The typing classes are composed chiefly of Sophomore students, although many Junior and Senior students are enrolled. Typing is the most popular course in the commercial department.

Second in popularity is Bookkeeping. At the beginning of the year thirty students were enrolled, two of this number being post graduates. Many students have learned how beneficial is the combination of Typewriting and Bookkeeping.

Students who registered for Stenography I are Juniors and have an average of C in their English courses and have attained an average of thirty words a minute in typing. Students must complete Stenography I and II before credit is given. Credit is not granted for one year's work in Stenography. The Gregg system of Shorthand is taught in all Stenography classes. In Stenography I the learning of Shorthand theory is the important task for the year. Since the theory is learned in the first year, transcription and office practice are stressed in Stenography II.

The Stenography II class is composed of seven Senior girls, while Stenography I has nine girls, one boy and one post graduate.

Instructor ----------Sylvia Weese

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Advisors: Miss Hoeppner and Mr. Loucks

The Physical Education Department carried out a well-rounded program of games, tactics, body-building exercises and dances during the past year. The students of the seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth grades took part in the activities.

At the beginning of the year the classes were organized into a squad system. In both boys' and girls' groups, squad leaders were chosen and were held responsible for specific duties.

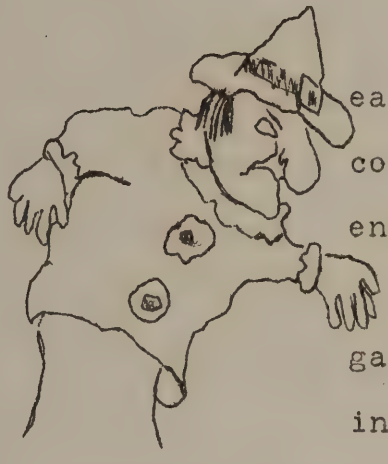
The boys began the year by learning the skills of soccer, and many of the classes were held outside. The next seasonal sport was football, and everyone participated in touch football games as well as mastering some of the techniques of the game. This was followed by basketball, volleyball, and soft ball.

The girls participated in outdoor sports as long as weather permitted, playing kittenball and soccer. Indoors, throughout the winter, they concentrated on games, folk dances, gymnastic exercises, and basketball.

After the basketball season was completed, a tournament was held in which all students of both physical education classes were given the opportunity to participate. This tournament lasted over a period of three weeks, and many of the games were played during Physical Education periods. The final games for the championship were played at night. In the boys' group, the Freshmen won the title by beating the Seniors; in the girls' group, the Juniors won by beating the Seniors.

ART AND MUSIC

ART

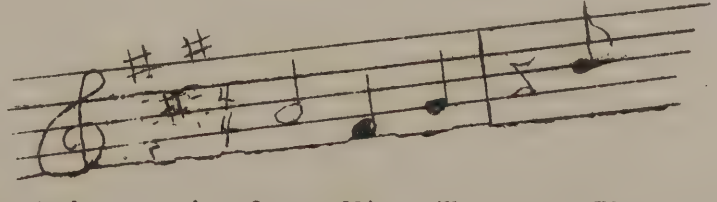


The Seventh and Eighth grades spend an hour each week in Art work. Art appreciation, use of colors, and construction work make this hour very enjoyable.

This year pupils made posters to advertise games, constructed hand-puppets, carved models in soap, did crayon textile work, drew pencil and crayon drawings, painted original designs, and pictures in water color, modeled with clay, and studied famous paintings.

Three very excellent movies aided the art work they were "The Potter's Wheel", "Soap Carving", and "Young America-Paints." The pupils of the Seventh grade also visited the Indian collection at Oliver Clinic, and Ehrenberg's Drug Store to examine pottery before they did their clay modeling.

The eighth grade art class is under the direction of Miss Lampert; the seventh grade art class is under the direction of Miss Quist.



MUSIC

The Junior High pupils take music from Miss Weese. They not only sing but study music in its various forms. They show a keen interest in the study of piano compositions and their composers. These classes meet regularly and in them pupils are taught music appreciation.

VISUAL EDUCATION

This year Visual Education has added greatly to the curriculum of our school. The films were supplied by various film companies and run on our own machine. The films supplemented our regular class work.

There were pictures on Home Economics, Social Studies, Agriculture, Science, and Art. These pictures relieved the tension of study and provided many needed explanations by the use of pictures. The material presented was not only educational but enjoyable. Educational Films presented this year were:

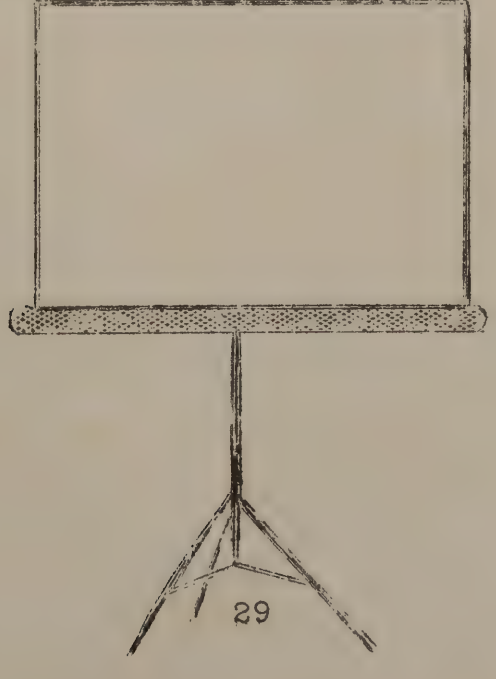
Mr. Milinkovich was in charge of the Visual Education Department. It was his work to see that films were available for use and to arrange the years program. All films were available to any department which wished to make use of them.



"Freshmen greet them friend or foe,
Three more years they have to go.
Sophomores just a little older,
Heavier work they now must shoulder.
Juniors, classplay, prom, and such,
In the past two years have gained so much.
Then Seniors who've secured full knowledge,
Are quite learned enough to enter college."

CLASSES

SENIOR CLASS

In 1937 twenty-two freshmen enrolled in Graceville High School. We were no different from the general run for we were as green as any freshmen. Our first few days of our school we put forth our best manners but that was before we learned we were not to be initiated. Mr. Brewster was our class advisor. At the beginning of the year we chose our class officers who were to be changed every six weeks. At the end of the year Kathryn Weesner was president, Bruce Hanson was vice president, Evelyn Buntjer was secretary and Alden Sederis was treasurer. During our freshman year Isabel Zimmerman, Marvin and Olie Bremseth joined our class making our number 25.

The first week in December found us a busy group of freshmen preparing for the carnival. Isabel Zimmerman was chosen by the class as freshman queen.

James Ritter, Olie and Marvin Bremseth did not come back for our Sophomore year, but we were joined by Darrell Anderson, Yvonne and Edward Murray. Raymond Gettman transferred making the number in our class 24.

A few months after school started we were again preparing for our fall carnival queen candidate.

In November of this year La Verne Edstrom joined our class.

Miss Tufte was our class advisor, Evelyn Buntjer was our class president, vice president was Ivaloo Henry, Bruce Hanson was secretary, and Dorothy Mae Ward was our treasurer.

Mildred Skoog joined us when we were Juniors; but Arlene Loehr, Evelyn Luntjer and Isabel Zimmerman left our class. We now had 23 in our class.

Our class officers were: Melvina Murray president, Evelyn Sullivan vice president, Darrell Anderson secretary, and Alden treasurer. Miss Strandmark was our advisor.

Instead of having a carnival we had a homecoming; chosen as our candidate for queen was Melvina Murray. Our motto was "Skyrocket Alberta", but they rocketed us instead.

On May 8, we sponsored the Junior-Senior prom with the faculty and the Senior class as our guests. Dinner was served at 6:30, the Grand March was at 9:30 and the evening was spent dancing to Jimmy Barnetts' Orchestra. The theme of our prom was "South of the Border, Down Mexico Way."

Twenty-three seniors enrolled at the beginning of this year. We were joined by Howard Tiggiman and Beatrice Welle.

Our class advisor was Miss Quist, Melvina Murray was president, La Verne Edstrom vice president, and Evelyn Sullivan secretary-treasurer.

The Senior Class presented a farce in three acts, Second Fiddle as a class play. We also gave a school party, a Christmas program and party.

ACTIVITIES

"SECOND FIDDLE"

Each year the Seniors of the High School present for the general public a three act class play.

This year on November 20, the Seniors presented the "Second Fiddle," a delightful comedy written by Guernsey Le Pelley and directed by Miss Quist.

The cast of characters was as follows:

Mildred Skoog	Minnie Carson	Guest of Mrs. Baker's
Ivaloo Henry	Marion Baker	Aunt Marion
La Verne Edstrom	Joan Keeler	Neice of Aunt Marion's
Bruce Hanson	Wilbur	The Butler
Kathryn Weesner	Janet Williams	Guest at Baker home
Howard Tiggeman	Harold Werple	Man Joan marries
Melvina Murray	Dorothy Van Straaten	Harold's fiancee
Jean Layman	Mrs. Keeler	Joan's mother

All members of the Senior class who were not in the cast served either on the properties, stage, or publicity committees.

The cast thoroughly enjoyed the play inspite of the long practice and loss of sleep and leisure time. The boys had a good time putting the makeup on while the girls enjoyed wearing the formals in the third act.

The students who participated in producing the class play gained valuable experience in appearing before an audience. These appearances gave them self-confidence which they hope will carry over into their future life.

DECLAMATIONS

For at least seven years Graceville High School has participated in declamation contests. In 1936, Alice Escher took part in the regional contest, with "Tell Tale Heart". Hans Sorenson and Ruth Johnson received second place in the sub-district with "The Big Parade" and Tipping Off Teacher" respectively. Hans Sorenson, with his selection "Last Generation", won first in the sub-district and also went to the district contest in 1938. Betty Hustad in 1939 received second place with "Tom Sawyer's Love Affair."

In 1940 June Grant received a rating of excellent with her selection of "Ferdinand"; in the sub-district contest Marguerite Moe received very good with "A Series of War Poems". Harold Sorenson received a good with "Youth Faces to-day".

This year twenty-three students participated in declamation. Twenty of these were in declamations, two in oratory, and one in extemporaneous speaking.

The winners in the local elimination contest were chosen on February 15. On February 20, the following were sent to the sub-district at Clinton. LaVerne Edstrom, with Virginia Boulange as alternate, in the declamation division. In the oratorical division, Lyle Boulange, with Harold Sorenson acting as alternate; and Kathryn Weesner was entered in the extemporaneous division. All representatives made a very good showing with Kathryn winning an excellent rating. She, therefore, represented our school in the district at Breckenridge and received a rating of very good.

The coaches for this work were: Declamations, Miss Hoeppner; Oratory, Mr. Loucks; Extemporaneous Speech, Miss Quist.

MOCK CONVENTIONS

The Freshman and Senior Social Studies classes, under the guidance of Miss Quist and Mr. Loucks, demonstrated their knowledge of political procedure by presenting two "mock conventions" representing the Democratic and Republican parties on October 22.

A combination of serious work and entertainment, these conventions were enjoyed not only by the gallery, which took and active, vociferous part, but also by the delegates themselves.

As an appropriate background, the auditorium was gaily bedecked with flags, bunting and pictures of the leading candidates. Cartoons and posters added color to the festival spirit of the occasion. The delegates carried and flourished the various state signs as well as large banners urging the election of their candidates.

In outline, the activities ran as follows: band number; "Hamilton Field March"; song sung by all; meeting called to order by the chairman of the National Committee; keynote address; reports of the Committees on Rules; Credentials, and Permanent Organization; election of a new permanent chairman; nomination speeches for president; voting on presidential nominees; selection of candidates; nominations for vice president; voting and speeches; adjournment of convention.

In the Republican convention, the part of the national chairman was taken by Vernon Westman; temporary chairman, Harold Sorenson; permanent chairman, Richard Reardon; clerk, Lyle Shuckhart; and chairman of the committee on Platform and Resolutions, Kathryn Weosner.

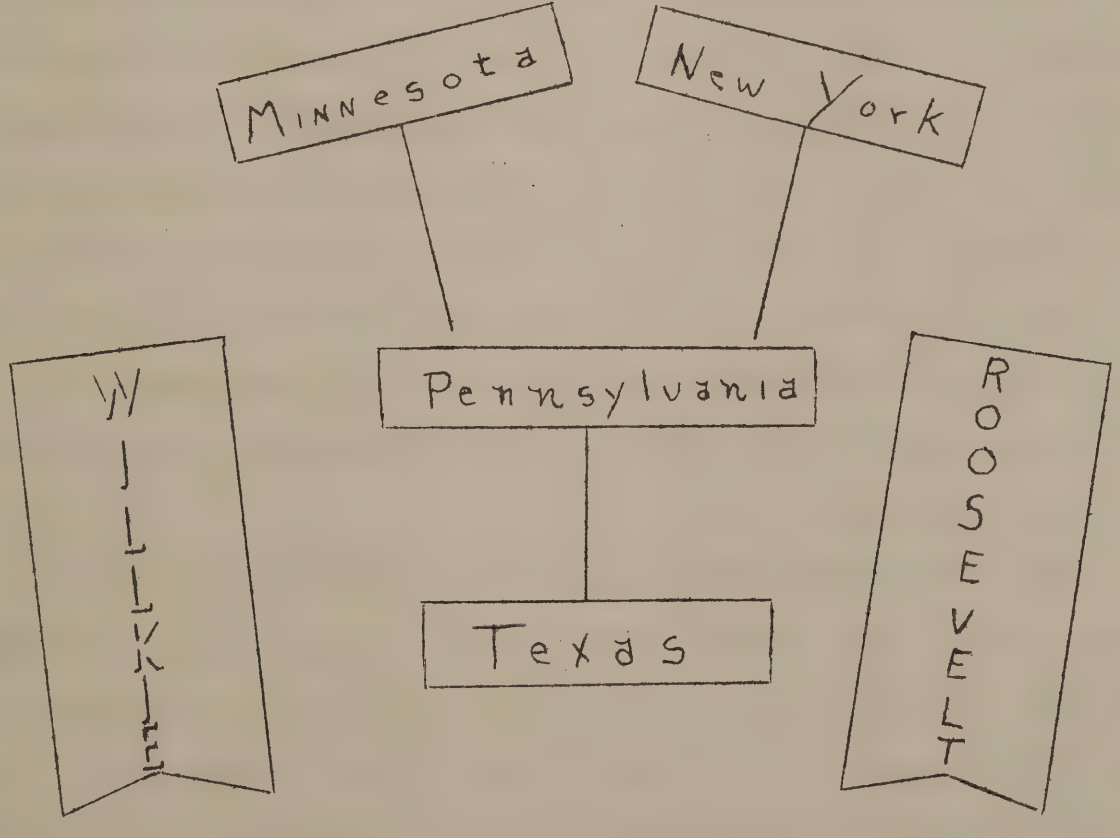
Democratic convention officials were: national chairman, Harold Sorenson; temporary chairman, Alden Sedaris; clerk, Lawrence Drewelow. The parts of both President Roosevelt and Former President Hoover were played by Bruce Hanson.

During the course of both conventions, there was often a burst of music and song. Highlights featured Dorothy Venard, who sang "God Bless America"; and "Yellow Rose of Texas," sung by Gladys and Erma Gruneich. The band played as the convention leaders staged boisterous parades.



DEBATE

Resolved: That the Power of the Federal Government Should Be Increased. Thus read the question for debate this year. The great change in world affairs, the advent of dictatorships, and the trend toward increasing the powers of our Federal Government made this question a vital issue of the day.

The question itself was perhaps the most far-reaching of any debate question ever used in high school. It included the social, economic, and political changes being made in government today. Any topic which represented an increase of Federal Power could be debated upon. Debaters this year had to study hard in order to attain a marked degree of success. Knowledge of the American Constitution, American History, political change in Europe, and the Roosevelt Administration was absolutely necessary.

The debate squad was composed of three active members. They were Kathryn Weesner, Evelyn Sullivan, and Harold Sorenson. The Affirmative was upheld by Kathryn and Harold, and the Negative by Kathryn and Evelyn.

The team participated in a tournament in Breckenridge in February. In this tournament they broke even with one win and one loss. Practice debates were held with the Morris Ag. School before the District Tournament. The District Tournament was held at Graceville. The Graceville team was eliminated by Breckenridge, the winner of the tournament.

The Debate Team was coached by Mr. Loucks.

GIRL'S GLEE CLUB

Music for our various school functions is furnished by the Girls' Glee Club under the direction of Miss Weese.

Glee Club meets twice each week after school. This group is a very worthwhile organization whose members give loyally of their time for the benefit of their school.

Members of the Glee Club are: Kathleen Dewey, Bernice Brennan, La Verne Edstrom, Maxine Winters, Jean Layman, Ivaloo Henry, Mary Grant, and Mabel Shuckhart.

The Glee Club has taken part in many of the school programs. During the Christmas program they sang many lovely carols. Some of them were "O'Holy Night", "Joy to the World", "O'Little Town of Bethlehem", "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear", "The First Noel", and "Hark the Herald Angels Sing".

Among their collection of pieces are: "I Dream of Jeanie", "Indian Dawn", "The Bells of St. Mary's", and "Prayer From Hansel and Gretel".

The Glee Club always sings some selections at Commencement Exercises.

SENIOR FIELD TRIP

10:00 A. M. Left Graceville On Sunday, April 20th.

On either side of Delano we went through a storm area. Early Sunday morning it had sleeted and snowed. The wind had blown down many telephone poles. In some parts the electric lines were also down.

1:00 p.m. We arrived in Litchfield, ate dinner at the Hotel.

3:40 We arrived at the Sheridan Hotel. From there we went through Fort Snelling, across the Mendota Bridge, saw the flooded river bottom, and saw the Sibley House. We also went into the Catholic Church which was erected in 1853. We, then, went to the Minneapolis Municipal Airport. While there we visited the Weather Bureau Office and saw a transcontinental plane take-off for Chicago.

6:00 We registered at the Sheridan Hotel. Most of us spent our evening at a movie.

11:00 We checked in at the hotel and were ready for a good night's sleep.

Monday:

8:45 p.m. We left the hotel and went to the Vocational High School. Miss Crounse told us about their school, and several guides took us through the various departments. Learned lots about vocational education.

10:00 We went through the Star-Journal building. Our tour through here was very interesting. We saw the presses, the teletypes, the photography department, and the want-ad department. While there we saw Cedric Adams, Vera, Uncle Ray, who reads the funnies, and Mr. Thompson, the publisher.

11:30 We ate lunch at the Forum Cafeteria.

12:45 W.C.C.O. We met Clellan Card and listened to Cedric Adam's News Broadcast. We were then shown through the other studios. We were welcomed over the air by Cedric Adams.

2:00 p. m. Loose-Wiles Biscuit Co. While here we saw how soda crackers and graham crackers are made. We also saw how they are boxed and wrapped. They were also frosting the cookies and making other types of cookies.

3:30 Senate. We were introduced to the Senate by Senator C. I. Oliver. We heard the Senate debate on several questions. A guide showed us Governor Stassen's reception room and told us about the Architecture of the State Capital. We were allowed to go the outside of the dome of the Capital where we could overlook St. Paul. We also went to the Historical Museum.

On the way back to Minneapolis we stopped on the University Campus. We went into the Library and into Cyrus Northrup Memorial Auditorium.

6:30 Dinner. Given by Senator Oliver at the Nicollet Hotel.

1:00 Tuesday. We arrived home. Tired but happy.

In appreciation for the effort and fine spirit which the football players showed throughout the football season, a Christmas Banquet was given in their honor Monday, December 16, 1940. The banquet was prepared and served by the Home Economics girls of the Junior and Senior classes under the direction of Miss Lampert.

Designed in true yuletide spirit the invitations were fashioned to represent Christmas trees. In the banquet room was a trimmed, lighted tree with holly wreaths in the doorway. The table centerpiece consisted of a world resting on snow-sprinkled cottoh. Red candles with spruce boughs for holders gave a festive appearance to the rest of the table. Angel place cards made of red and green cellpphane paper carried out the color scheme.

With Mr. Loucks presiding as toastmaster, the guests were well entertained during the banquet. Mr. Olszewski, the coach, who had charge of the boys expressed his appreciation for the cooperation received during the football season. JUNIOR SENIOR PROM

The Junior class chose this year for their banquet theme, "We're all Americans." Invitations were in the form of Uncle Sam's hat. The auditorium was decorated in red, white, and blue crepe paper following the patriotic theme. The American Rose, the Senior class flower, was used as center piece for the speakers table. Triple candle sticks with red, white, and blue candles in each were placed at either end. The rest of the table decorations consisted of red shield place cards, blue nut cups, and military napkins.

After the first course was served toastmistress, Florence Murphy introduced Richard Reardon, Junior Class president, who gave the welcome address. CLASS DAY

On Class Day, May 23, the Senior Class presented their Class Will, Class Prophecy, Class History, and Class Song. The tune of their Class Song was to, "My Sister and I".

The words were as follows.

Oh, Graceville High our school so dear
The time of parting from thee draws near
And the happy hours that we've spent here
Will soon be part of the past
Oh, Graceville High we'll miss thee then
As we miss all those who are our friends
And we'll love thee then as ne'r before
When you are part of our past.
The lessons you have taught to us
Are hope, courage, faith and love
And when the future comes our way
They'll guide us on the path aright,
Oh, Seniors are we and on this day,
We pay our respect to our school and say.
That as from your halls we go our way,
May we be proud of the past.

Oh, Graceville High to us you've given
The teachers who have always been our friends
And we wish before our day we end
To thank them all for the past.
Oh, classmates now we'll leave to you
Our work, good wishes, our ideals too
And we hope that you use them all before
They become part of your past.
The lessons school has taught to us
We hope that you learn them too.
And as we part on our way
We hate to say goodbye to you
Oh, Graceville High while here we've made
The friendships that shall forever stay
And always in our memories
We'll dream our dreams of the past.

"There's basketball, a game of skill,
Winning for all is the players will.
Then there's baseball for young and old,
Splendid are the innings unrolled.
There are many more could be explained,
And there's credit due to the one whose trained.
But we can sum it up in one word small,
Its "cooperation" and agreeing all."

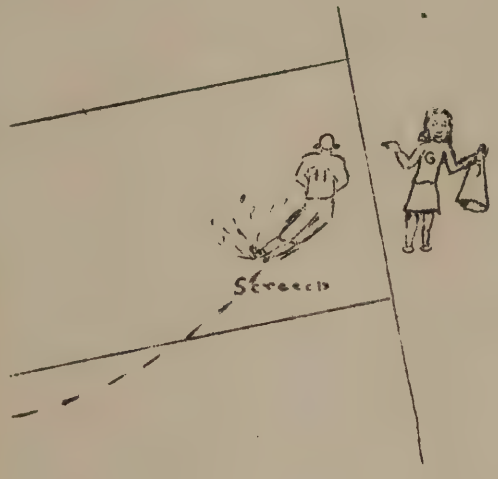
ATHLETICS

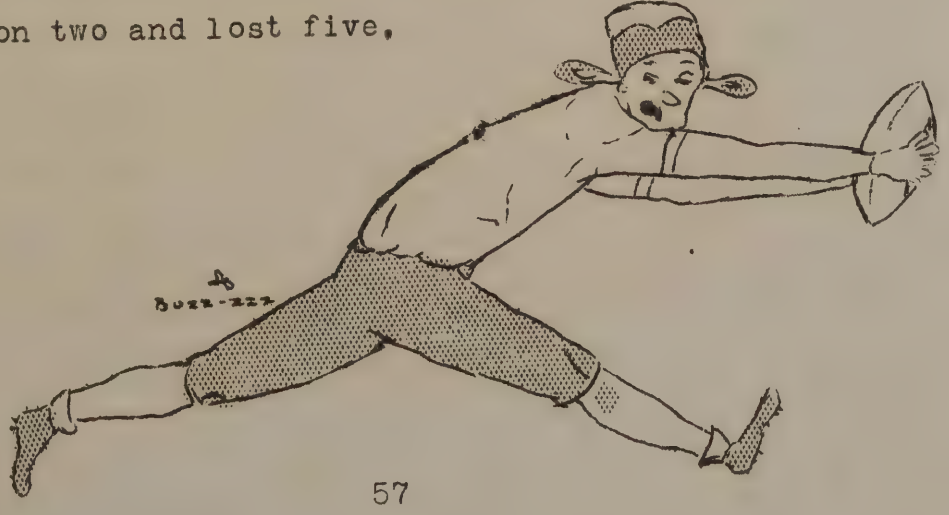
FOOTBALL



The football season got under way on September 3rd. when fifteen boys reported for practice under the guidance of their new Coach, Mr. Olszewski. Only a few holdovers from last year were among the group reporting, and a new team was created to carry on the tradition of the green and gold. Those answering the first call for players included the following:

Jack Broderick, Harold Sorenson, Earl Wehking, Bruce Hanson, Dick Reardon, Glenn Jurgens, Ordell Nyheim, Delmar Carrier, Arling Olson, Harvey Janssen, Donald Hanson, Brooks Dean, Jim Gray, Ervin Simpson, John Dewey, Howard Parker, Harold Parker, and Edgar Johanson. Of this group only four had experience playing high school football.

The Shamrocks played seven games during the season. Of this number they won two and lost five.



Following is the schedule:

September 15 - St. Mary's Academy - Here - Won

September 20 - Alberta---------- There - Lost

September 27 - Chokio---------- Here - Lost

October 4 - Starbuck---------- Here - Lost

October 11 - Clinton---------- Here - Lost

October 18 - Browns Valley--------- There - Lost

October 23 - Beardsley---------- Here - Won

The year's schedule brought five out of the seven games to Graceville, so that we have all seen our boys in action. The first game, however, was a non-conference game with St. Mary's Academy. The game was played Sunday, September 15, and was won by a score of 18 to 16. Dick Reardon, regular quarterback and end, was out of this game due to injuries received in an auto accident. Lyle Boulange, 85 pound substitute, took Reardon's place at quarterback and did an excellent job in calling the signals.

In the game played against Alberta on September 20 the Shamrocks led through three quarters of play. The first touchdown was scored by Bruce Hanson, and a pass to Harold Parker accounted for the extra point making the score 7 to 0. In the final quarter Alberta scored a touchdown on a pass, but failed to convert for the extra point. Then hard luck suddenly come to the green and gold, and Alberta scored another touchdown in the final forty seconds of play. The local boys were badly outweighed by Alberta, but they played good ball, considering the fact that this was their first conference game. In the starting line-up were Sorenson, Gray, Sedaris, Hanson, Reardon, and Parker. Simpson, Johanson, and Nyheim also played a part of the game. The final score was 12 to 7.

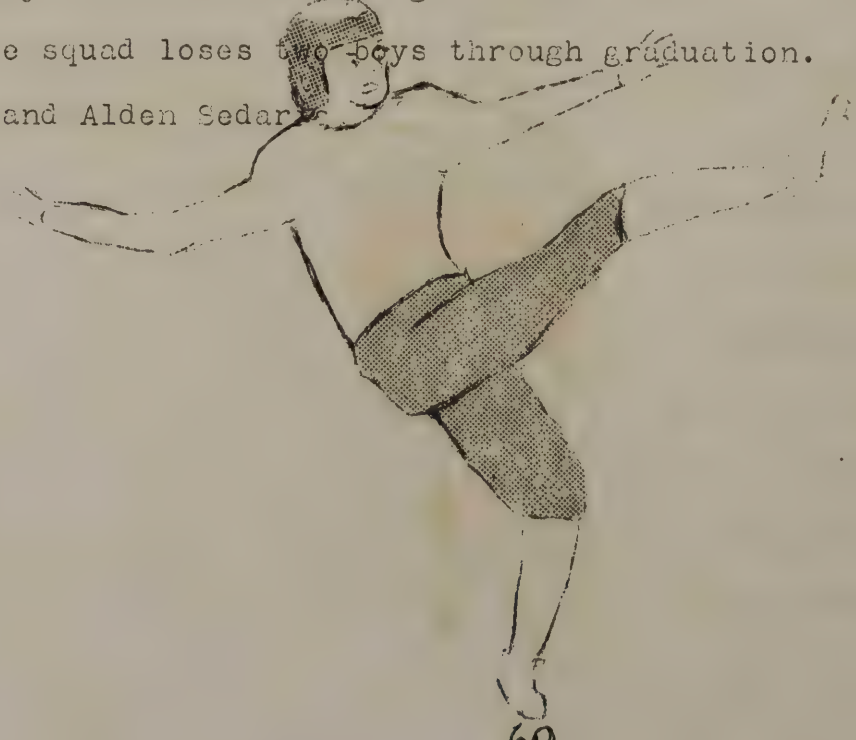
In the game against Chokio the visitors made the first touchdown following a fifty yard return of a Graceville punt. In the second quarter of the game Johanson intercepted a pass and ran for a touchdown. The first half ended with Chokio in the lead by a score of 14 to 6. The third quarter of the game was played with both teams threatening the goal line, but neither was able to score. In the fourth quarter Chokio made another touchdown, but Bruce Hanson retaliated by making one for the Shamrocks. The Graceville boys were close to the goal several times during the game, but couldn't score on these occasions.

The next two games were played at home. They included a non-conference game with Starbuck and a game with Clinton. In the Starbuck game we were badly beaten, but the boys did not give up despite the heavy odds.

The Clinton game was marked by a special dedication to Knute Rockne, great Notre Dame football coach. The school band turned out, and the physical education classes participated in the formation of the letters K and R on the field during the time between the halves. The Notre Dame song was featured on the program, and a large crowd was present to honor one of the nations greatest builders of character and leadership.

Graceville played the next game away from home. This was the game with Browns Valley, and we lost by a score of 34 to 7. By this time the boys had made up their minds to end the season on the long end of the score, and they certainly did that in the final game played here with Beardsley. In the one-sided victory Hanson scored a total of 31 points and Reardon scored 13. In this final game the boys let loose with a fine aerial attack and a lot of power in their "through center"plays. Most of the third quarter was played by the second team, and during that time Beardsley succeeded in making a touchdown.

The squad loses two boys through graduation. They are Bruce Hanson and Alden Sedar.



BASKETBALL

THEY SHALL NOT PASS !!!

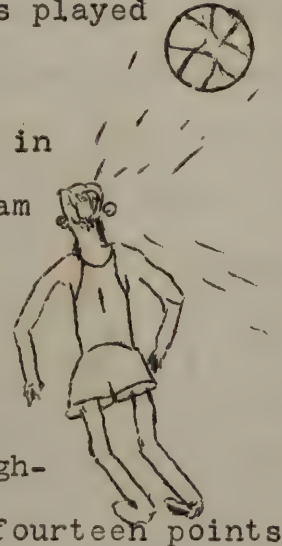
The Basketball squad was composed of 23 boys this year. Most of these boys who reported to Coach Olszewski at the beginning of the season were inexperienced players. We were also handicapped this year by lack of height. However, the nucleus of the squad was the Freshman group, and we are expecting them to come through with some good basketball next year.

The following boys made up the 1940-41 squad: Robert Billiet, Delmar Carrier, Donald Hanson, Lyle Boulange, John Dewey, Harold Parker, Howard Parker, Harold Sorenson, James Gray, Dick Jurgens, Dick Reardon, Alden Sederis, Keith Janssen, Lloyd Mahla, Lawrence Anderson, Brooks Dean, Joseph Murphy, Lyle Schuckhart, Erwin Allen, Edgar Johanson, Ervin Simpson, Bruce Hanson.

The season included a total of seventeen games beginning on December 3rd with a game against St. Mary's Academy. Following is the 1940-41 schedule of the Shamrocks:

December	3	St. Mary's Academy	Here
	6	Browns Valley	There
	10	Wheaton	Here
	13	Chokio	Here
	19	Ortonville	Here
January	10	Ortonville	There
	11	Alberta	There
	14	St. Mary's Academy	Here
	17	Beardsley	There
	24	Clinton	Here
	30	Browns Valley	Here
February	4	Hancock	There
	7	Chokio	There
	14	Alberta	Here
	17	Wheaton	There
	21	Beardsley	Here
	28	Clinton	There

The first conference game was played at Browns Valley, and it was a thriller all the way. However, in the final minutes the Valley team chalked up the winning tallies, and the Shamrocks were unable to equal the scoring of their opponents. Bruce Hanson was high-point man in the game; he made fourteen points.



In the next games against Wheaton and Chokio the boys met some stiff and determined opposition. These games were both lost. Hanson, Boulange, and Sorenson made the points for Graceville.

After the Christmas Holidays the schedule was resumed with a game against Ortonville on their floor. This was one of the best games of the year. The boys put up a real battle against superior odds and surprised Ortonville cagers and fans alike by leading the game nearly all the way. Through lack of reserve material, the Green and Gold began to fall behind, but they went down fighting. When the final whistle blew the score was 21-27. Bruce Hanson was high with 15 points. Lyle Boulange had 4.

The next game was played at Alberta the following evening, and the boys won by a score of 21-15. The game was tied at the end of the fourth period and went into overtime. The Shamrocks turned on full power to sink three fast baskets.

Other interesting games of the year were played on the home floor against Browns Valley and Beardsley. The first game was won by a one-point margin; the second was lost by one point. In the Browns Valley game the boys redeemed themselves for a defeat suffered in the beginning of the season. The game against Beardsley was a hard one to lose for the Shamrocks grabbed the lead in the third quarter and held it down to the final minutes of play. Boulange was high scorer with 9 points and Hanson close behind with 8.

The sub-district tournament was held at Clinton this year on the sixth and seventh of March. On the first evening Clinton and Graceville met in the first game. Graceville was defeated by a seven point margin after a hard fought game.

The next evening the Shamrocks met Browns Valley in the Consolation game. In this game the Green and Gold came through with flying colors to win by the close score of 28-27.

The coaches chose an all-conference team after the final contest. Bruce Hanson was named all-conference center, and Lyle Boulange was named one of three all-conference guards.

Although the Shamrocks did not win as many games as we might have desired we know that they can play first-rate basketball. Under the leadership of their new coach, Mr. Olszewski, they improved a great deal, and with the system of zone defense used this year our comparatively short team was able to keep pace with more rangy opponents.

We shall lose our most stalwart player through graduation, and his position is going to be a hard one to fill next year. The boy referred to is Bruce Hanson who has played four consecutive years of basketball for the Shamrocks.

BASEBALL

This year Graceville High adopted baseball as an additional interscholastic sport. Coach Olszewski, who has played a great deal of professional baseball, is not expecting a very successful season with his totally inexperienced squad. However, he is sure that some of the boys will develop into good players if they practice diligently.

The seventh, eighth, ninth, and tenth grade boys turned out in near unanimity to answer the call for players. Early practice was held under difficulty due to bad weather and lack of facilities for practice. However, with the cooperation of the village council the local field was put into shape for playing.

The following boys make up the squad:

Bob Billiet	Laurence Anderson
Duane Billiet	Lyle Boulange
James Sullivan	Brooks Dean
Leonard Wagner	La Verne Dehlin
Stuart Johnson	John Dewey
Ian Cota	John Honzo
Donald Hanson	Marvin Klicker

Frank Broderick	Lyle Schuckhart
Harvy Jansen	Erwin Simpson
Jack Broderick	Edgar Johanson
Glenn Jurgens	LeRoy Swedberg
Earl Wehking	Harold Sorenson
Erwin Allen	Keith Janssen

The following schedule was completed.

April	22 Beardsley (there)	May	18 Alberta (here)
	29 Clinton (there)		20 Chokio (here)
May	2 Browns Valley (There)		22 Browns Valley (here)

CHEER LEADERS

No school athletic game is complete without the presence of at least a part of the student body. These students need leaders to direct their participation in sports. Our cheer leaders this year performed their tasks well. They have as their responsibility the job of conducting school pep fests, as well as leading the cheering on the athletic field or floor.

The cheer leaders this year were:

Senior High: La Verne Edstrom
Florence Murphy

Junior High: Virginia Boulange
Lois Mahla

Advisor: Miss Hoeppner

The Senior High leaders had new outfits this year in green trimmed with gold. These two uniforms were furnished by donations from the Junior and Senior Classes.

Three new megaphones were also purchased through the school's athletic fund.
